YOUR NOMINATION AND ELECTION COMMITTEE AT WORK!

After months of careful planning, preparation, and hard work, your HOA Nomination and Election Committee convened on February 4, 2023 to count ballots for the annual Board of Directors Elections. As required by the HOA By-Laws, all votes were anonymously cast. The authenticity of ballots and vote count were verified by Committee members Ruth Blevins, Susan Brown, Michaelene Cruz, Lisa Gabrielcik, Linda Storma, and Daniel Cruz. The results of the election were presented to the Board, as scheduled, on February 15, 2022.

In addition to the Committee Members who worked hard to make this election run smoothly and transparently, the Committee wishes to thank Lisa Bellanca, our Committee's Board Liaison, Cindy Briton, Co-Chair of the Membership Committee, and Cindy Swisher, Tower Editor. Also, the Committee wishes to thank all the HOA office volunteers for their help in directing members who were uncertain of how to deliver their ballots. Most of all, the Committee wishes to thank the Candidates for stepping up to serve their Community and Membership for casting their votes.

Our Board of Directors is always looking for volunteers to serve on next year's Nomination and Election Committee. If you are interested in participating and having some fun along the way, or if you have any questions about the election, please reach out to Daniel Cruz at danielleecruz@gmail.com or 239.443.7278.

DEL TURA AROUND THE GROUNDS By Darlene Fincham

The Del Tura Grounds Committee consists of volunteers that provide regular general surveillance of common areas in Del Tura. If you are interested in making a difference by overseeing an area of your interest, to identify repairs needed, as well as repairs completed, please contact delturagrounds@yahoo.com.

America (Del Tura) personnel are authorized to move umbrellas or furniture from their original location.

Please remember that in order to keep our grounds in a condition that we are proud of, it is respectful to clean your tables, put your trash in the receptacles provided, and if you move tables together put them back the way they were for the pools, as well as the courtyard. Also, when you leave a table, please close the umbrella so it doesn't get damaged if a storm kicks up. Finally, remember that only Hometown

If you spot something in a common area that needs repair please send an email, including pictures and exact location (very important), to delturagrounds@yahoo.com and a work order will be requested through the Administration Office. For larger items, which are capital expenditures, our HOA leadership continues to work with Hometown America on a monthly basis. Residential property issues are outside the Grounds Committee and HOA jurisdiction, so please work directly with Del Tura's administrative team.

PRESIDENT'S KORNER

By Lisa Bellanca, President - Board of Directors

This is my last article as President of the HOA. I have met so many kind and generous people over the last couple of years. I could not have navigated serving the community without the help, information, and assistance provided by past board members, as well as knowledgeable residents. Thank you, thank you, thank you. I will take this knowledge and use it during my remaining two years as a director on the board.

I must thank all the board directors and officers I have served with. In a community of our size one person cannot make a difference. A huge shout out to all the community volunteers, (current, past, and future). It takes a village, and we have a great one.

Congratulations and welcome to the newly elected HOA board members. Darlene Fincham, Dorothy Cook, Nuno Hilton, Dave Tomaszewski, and Irma Backelant. They will join Art Keen, Kathy Williamson, Cindy Baron and myself to serve you to the best of our abilities for the next year.

2022 THANKSGIVING AND CHRISTMAS BASKETS

By Charlene/Ron Ruotolo, Betty Scheetz & Ruth Anten

This year (2022) the Basket Charity Program continued to exceed our expectations. As Del Tura continues to grow and change Del Tura residents continue to be as giving as ever. The Basket Program is now 42 years old and it appears that it will continue for a long time, thanks to the donations (food, money & gifts) by the RESIDENTS OF DEL TURA. In addition to all the donations there is also an overwhelming volunteer effort that makes programs like this possible.

For those of you that do not know what the Basket Program is all about, we provide complete Thanksgiving and Christmas Dinners as well as boxes of staple food and, at Christmas, gifts for each family member living in the household.

Many of you already know that this was our last year. For us it started in 2010 with a phone call from Babe Schwartz, the previous chairperson, asking if I would continue the program as she was moving. The rest is history.

We are thrilled that two couples have volunteered to continue the program, Bob & Judy Tatz and Chuck and Brenda Bengé. Please provide them the same support you have shown us.

Again, our heartfelt thanks to everyone who donated to the holiday collection and to all the volunteers that collected, wrapped and packed the baskets. We would like to mention all of you by name, but the list is just TOO long.

DEL TURA FRUIT TREE PROJECT

FINAL TOTALS FOR 2021-2022

The Fruit Tree project had 13 dedicated volunteers, who picked fruit from October 1, 2021 through September 30, 2022. Our thanks to the following people: Joe Pollock, Barry Plisch, Christine Yeager, Don Yeager, Stewart Williams, Maria Soper, Gail Hodge, Larry Hodge, Patt Glen, Andree Dearing, Charles Dearing, Sandy Vassallo, and Denise Rose.

The commitment for this project was for approximately one hour each time we would meet to pick fruit. The old saying, "many hands make less work" sure was true in this case.

This year we picked a total of 5,056 pounds of avocados, bananas, coconuts, mangoes, oranges, and starfruit. Most of the fruit was delivered and donated to the CCMI Café, part of the Harry Chapin Food Bank.

At one of the early fall Tuesday Coffee hour meetings, I spoke and asked for volunteers to replace me as Chairman of this committee. No one called, so I figured I'd have to keep the job a while longer, but IAN must have heard me, because he wiped out most of the fruit trees that we have picked over the years.

So...this will be my last report for the project. I believe our little group of "pickers" contributed a real service to Del Tura homeowners. Many of our seasonal residents weren't here when the fruit on their trees ripened. We're grateful for the opportunity to give back to our community and, in turn, help others less fortunate by donating the fruit.

Thank you, Sherry

A Tale of Two Rescues

Hello everyone, my name is Clover. I am a three-time award winning AKC grand champion Beagle. I am small, tri-colored, and still in show shape. I have long white sox and ears like velvet or rabbit's fur. Unfortunately, when I was a puppy, no one wanted to adopt me, so I had to stay with my breeders. Their pack was already three strong. Being the smallest and youngest, my pack bullied me causing me to spend my first seven years either defending myself inside my crate watching the world go by or hiding under the bed in the back room in hopes of some peace. I learned to blend into the background to avoid the others. I learned to not bark as that draws the wrong kind of attention. Yes, I am a beagle who does not bark. The breeders never felt it was necessary to train me or socialize me, so I never went for walks or met any other dogs or people except for the vet. I am startled by everything, and my flight response is all I have. The house, back yard, car, and vet's office is the total extent of the exposure to the world I experienced for my first seven years. Sometime just before my seventh birthday, some portly human who smelled like sausages, showed up at the door and spent time on the floor meeting me and the pack. The others didn't care for him, but I found him to be comforting, and boy did he know all the right spots to scratch. I decided to curl up in his lap to continue my massage and maybe get some peace from the others. A week later that guy came back, the breeders got my papers and informed him I was the niece of his first dog. He then took me to live with him at his house. Right away I had my own yard to play in, I was allowed, no, had, a place on the couch set for me, toys everywhere and a bed in almost every room. My new dad has spent so much time with me trying to get me to become a real beagle again and I must say I do enjoy the time together, but I am still struggling with all of the outside activities he has me trying. I am still absolutely terrified of other dogs, all children, most people and even little animals like birds and bunnies. My Dad has relocated us both and I am adjusting again. I like sniffing around behind my house, but when I find a bunny, see another dog or the golfers on the tee are being loud, I will dart to my back door to get back inside, tail between my legs. I love being inside my house where it is safe. I have my toys and I can lounge around wherever I want. I like to walk on my hind legs and even dance at mealtime. I still refuse to take walks on the streets, so meeting many new people becomes difficult. My dad is trying to take me for golf cart rides. When my dad first came and adopted me, I think he needed me. He had just come off Chemo, lost his mother, lost my uncle (his first dog), and survived pancreatic failure with all of the diabetes and organ failure that comes with it, but with me being a such natural sweetheart, my dad seems much happier now as well. (Who rescued who?) I really would like to meet everyone but, please don't be offended if I meet you on a cart ride and I tremble the whole time. I am still trying to adjust to normal life.

"March Winds"

I'm sitting here today thinking about the month of March and asking myself, "I wonder in which direction the March winds will blow this year?" Will they blow in a peaceful direction, or will they greet us with a random force that tends to rudely nudge us in a direction that we are not comfortable with? I, like the majority of us, feel that we are more than ready for March winds that bring us days that are happy, calm, and tranquil.

I think of the arrival of March and its differences to living up north as compared to living here in sunny Florida. For us here we don't think about it as the end of winter and the welcoming of warmer days, we think of it as a transition from one month to another. Maybe a little warmer temps, but not at the level of our northern neighbors. Even though there are many differences on how we welcome and prepare for spring, we still have many things in common to celebrate as we enter this new season...spring can be a new beginning for all of us!

Northerners look forward to the spring rains and start planning for the planting of their vegetable and flower gardens. They anxiously await the arrival of the final spring thaw so they can seriously get out there and prepare the soil for planting... I emphasize the final because up there you just can't be too sure if it will be!

Thankfully we don't have to worry about waiting for the ground to thaw to plant our vegetables or flowers. Here in Del Tura we plant our vegetables and flower seeds in pots, or in the ground and with a little luck and lots of T.L.C. they actually grow into beautiful plants. Well, most of us because my thumb has never been green, but I will never give up!

I think of all the time we put into our gardens and how beautiful they turn out. If we put that effort into our well-being I truly feel we would be so much healthier and happier with ourselves. Like our gardens we need to weed out the things that interfere with our growth and focus on the things that allow us to blossom. Yes, spring is a time to connect with Mother Earth wherever we may be but it's also a time for new beginnings for all of us. A perfect time to reconnect with ourselves and personally reflect on the things that will allow us to grow and give us peace.

Happy Spring Everyone

MEN'S GOLF ASSOCIATION

By Donnie Soper

The DTMGA has now played three of our six scheduled tournaments. We just finished our Member-Member on February 2nd. The second round started out as a regular day and then it was different! An airplane landed on 9 West! (See photos on page 12) The 9th hole was part of play for the day and then it was not! The pilot had an emergency landing; a perfect landing with no one hurt, and no damage to the fairway or green. The hole had to close for the day pending an investigation. This led to a reroute of play, and made an extra-long day. I want to thank Mike Overholser, the West Starter, who helped the tournament work its way to the end.

As I write this article on the afternoon of February 9th, many of us just had a great day of golf in the morning playing the Ladies 18 Hole Valentines Tournament. It was fun for all... thank you ladies.

The next Pro Shop tournament is the Divorce Open on Saturday February 11th. Just a note on the Divorce Open.

It was not always called the Divorce Open, the tournament started as a Couples Scotch back in 2009 here at Del Tura. My wife, Maria Soper, and I brought the idea to then Head Pro Jeff Nixon. We explained about the fun tournament we played at Olde Salem Greens, in Salem, MA. Jeff loved the idea and we had a summer and winter Scotch for a number of years. Jeff saw all the fun, or not so much fun, the couples were having and he named it "The Divorce Open".

The DTMGA 2-Ball will be played February 15 & 16, 2023, followed by the DTMGA Member Guest on March 3 & 4, 2023. Our last tournament of the year will be the DTMGA Club Championship on March 15,16 & 22, 2023. Mark Reimer and Jay Fitzgerald have sat down with me to come up with pace of play rule for tournaments and every day play, info to follow.

DTMGA elections are March 29, 2023, at 1:00 PM in the Starlight Ballroom. I encourage all members to vote at the meeting. Bill Ahrens, Treasurer and myself (Donnie Soper), President are stepping down. Dave Daniels will oversee the election. We need new blood and new ideas to move forward.

I would like to thank all the members going back to 2010 when I first became a board member and later President for a number of years. It was fun, but now it is time to step away and just play golf.

Thank you, Donnie Soper

DEL TURA BEGINNINGS

By Karen Handley and Cindy Swisher

Little did I know when I wrote last month's article about the fiery plane crash Del Tura experienced in June of 1991 that history would soon repeat itself. The results of this version, however, were quite different from the first.

Just before noon on February 2, as golfers were enjoying a morning of play, a Piper PA-28R flown by pilot Peter Stern made an emergency landing on Nine West after experiencing mechanical failure. Stern was heading from Venice to the airfield across US 41 when the aircraft's engine gave out and he was forced to bring it down on the fairway.

Unlike the plane that came to rest nose first in a Del Tura home injuring three people, destroying one home and damaging three others, this aircraft glided gently across the grass and came to rest at the edge of the green. "He did a great job of landing it," witness and resident Dick Rose told WINK News. No one was hurt and there was no property damage, a real blessing considering how close the plane came to the crowded Pickleball courts nearby.

Soon after it landed, Del Tura golfers helped push the craft off of the green so play could resume. After all, "Neither snow, nor rain, nor heat, nor planes on fairways will stop a golfer from finishing his round."

CERT INFORMATION

During February your community CERT team co-hosted a community pancake breakfast. Thank you to the Homeowner Association who splits the profits from these events in order to help groups within the community to raise money. The extra funds we raise help us to resupply the community CERT closet. We also purchase items for future use as needed. CERT organized a Blood Drive on February 17th.

As I write this article, neither of the above events has taken place. I will provide more information on the results of these events in the April Tower.

At our February 1st monthly committee meeting, Amy from the Deaf & Hard of Hearing (DHHC) gave a fun and interesting presentation on signing. Amy provided us with basic information on how to correspond with people with hearing deficits. She also provided us with information on the services and information DHHC provides to Ft. Myers and surrounding areas. It was very interesting. I have heard from several residents suggesting this seminar is something they would be interested in attending if it were to be offered in the future. We are looking into organizing another presentation. We will post event details if this is something CERT can offer.

We appreciate "everyone" who has made donations to the CERT committee. We would like to thank both the Thanksgiving Dinner HOA Committee and the Night at the Races group. These two events recently made substantial donations to the CERT team. Donations are greatly appreciated since we are still replacing items that were provided to Del Tura residents in need after hurricane IAN. Our current shopping list includes heavy duty tarps, radios, and lanterns. All our committee expenses are paid from income generated at fundraisers, and donations.

In March the North Ft. Myers Fire Department is hosting a fun and educational luncheon for the local area community CERT teams. It is always a fun day, and photos will follow in the next issue of the Tower.

During the HOA Health and Wellness Event, Lisa and Frank Bellanca were able to speak with many residents regarding the CERT team's work in the community. They were also able to secure some future CERT members. Thank you to everyone who stopped by the table. If you are interested in joining the Del Tura CERT team, you can reach out to Bertie Dugo at 617-974-8502.

NATIONAL KIDNEY MONTH

By Margaret Hill

National Kidney Month is recognized each March. Did you know that during its early stages, kidney disease is often referred to as a silent disease because frequently there are no symptoms during the early stages? Of those Americans who have chronic kidney disease (CKD), 90% are not aware of it until the disease is advanced. CKD affects more than 1 in 7 adults and is the 9th leading cause of death in the US. Poorly functioning kidneys cause waste to accumulate in the blood, leading to a weakened system and other issues such as anemia, nerve damage and high blood pressure.

The good news is that it is possible to slow the progression of the disease if found in preliminary stages of development. For those over 60 who have risk factors such as diabetes, high blood pressure, heart disease or a family history of the disease, be sure to address kidney health during appointments. Generally, your health care provider can rule out CKD through urine and blood tests. The recommendation is that if you have diabetes, you should be assessed for the disease annually. For those that have heart disease or a family history of kidney issues, your health care provider can help to determine how often you should be tested.

To optimize your chances of maintaining kidney health, work to avoid high blood pressure and diabetes. Also recommended is that you maintain a healthy diet, remain active daily, sustain appropriate weight, do not smoke, limit alcohol consumption, reduce stress and get at least 7-8 hours of sleep per night.

This year, World Kidney Day is Thursday, March 9th. This year's theme is "Kidney Health for All--Preparing for the Unexpected, Supporting the Vulnerable". I encourage everyone to wear green on the 9th to increase awareness in our community.

GARDEN CLUB'S BIG EVENT

By Rosemary Eiden

Ever wonder what plants grow best, here in North Fort Myers? The Del Tura Garden Club is hosting a special opportunity for you to see the plants that are successful in Del Tura. The Garden Stroll, March 20th, 9-2pm. Five residents are opening up their yards for you to see first hand. This is a one day event. Gardens that you will see feature Florida natives, a butterfly garden, orchids, and vegetable gardening. You will be able to see color and texture combinations.

Gardeners will be present for you to ask questions. Please note that these gardens did survive hurricane Ian. Also, on the tour is our Demonstration Garden on the corner of Gran Via and Escorial. We have tweaked it this season with annuals that do well in our winter months. The annual plant sale will also, be set-up on the garden grounds. There will be an assortment of plants to choose from with affordable prices.

Tickets for the event will be sold at the Tuesday coffee on March 7 & 14th. They will also, be sold at the Demonstration Garden the day of the event. Your ticket will be punched at each garden you tour. Be sure to drop them in the Demonstration Garden box at the end of your tour for the drawings at the end of the day.

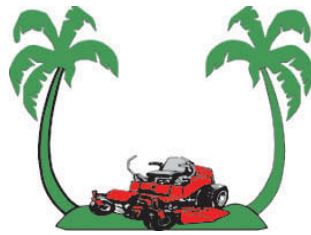

Funds from this event help support the many projects we are involved with: the garden pots at the Veterans area, the bench and planting at the Banyon tree, the orchids we plan to hang in the southern oaks, the herb "sensory garden" planters, and the sail cloth for shading at the Demonstration Garden.

PICKLEBALL FUN By Jamie Wyman

Hey Pickleballers, it's been awhile. I hope you all had a great holiday season and are finding yourself enjoying this beautiful sunshine state. Time sure is flying by.

Before we start with more "playing the game", I want to bring up a few small but important things. The first is, knowing where your closest AED (Automatic External Defibrillator) is located in relation to the pickleball courts. This device is located by the main pool against the west wall going into the pub. It is in a metal case that is clearly marked. In the event of an emergency requiring this device, you should send one person quickly over to retrieve the AED while someone else is calling 911. Another thing to maybe brush up on would be CPR (Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation). Again, if you need to perform this, the AED should be on its way to you.

Many accidents can happen on the courts, from minor to serious, and we must be as prepared as possible to handle them with the proper tools as quickly and efficiently as possible. I certainly don't mean to scare anyone, but I want us all to be as prepared as possible in the event of an emergency. The AED, along with CPR, can be an important part of saving someone's life.

On another note, as long as we are talking about AED's, please make sure you know where they are located throughout Del Tura. There is one located at every pool somewhere.

Finally, if you ever want to go over the AED or CPR, I would be more than happy to do that with you.

Sorry there wasn't much about the actual "game" of PB, but I felt this was very important to mention this month. Until next month.....

The Nine Holes' Club Championship, one of the major events of the season highlighting friendly competition, was held January 18/19 followed by a salad bar luncheon that finished with assorted homemade cookies - who knew our golfers were such great bakers!

Kathy Klein, Membership, reported three new members, Julie Kohn, Betty Radosevich and Gloria Titone. New members are always encouraged to participate in our extra events. Kathy can be reached at (715-927-1163) to answer any questions about the league and/or membership.

February 8, the VALENTINE COUPLES' SCRAMBLE and SOCIAL was held and attracted great participation. As usual, players enjoyed beautiful weather for a relaxed game of golf.

AND THE WINNERS ARE:

- South Flight 1: Jan & Tom Hoffay
 - South Flight 2: Marcy & Sunny Wagner
T - Justine & Mike Fitzgibbons
 - West Flight 1: Martha & Greg Stockinger
 - West Flight 2: Luann Condon & Thomas Miller
- Valentine hearts later greeted players in the ballroom where the Social Committee offered a hearty Hogbods pulled pork dinner with all the "fixings" topped off with a fun cake that put the finishing touch on a delicious meal. Thanks to all who worked behind the scenes to make it a success.

A serious moment was taken as President Justine Fitzgibbons recognized Jamie Wyman and her husband, Bruce, both EMTs, who because of their quick response and efforts were able to save the life of a player at a recent pickleball tournament. We are fortunate to have them residing in our community.

Justine, along with Debby Taylor, Tournament Chairman, and Pat Dinitto, Awards Chair, completed an already great evening by presenting the 2022 awards to the many winners attending.

An altogether great night for the Nine-Hole Women's League. See you on the tee!

We recently had the first of two tennis tournaments in January, sponsored by Denny Erickson. The winners of Division A were Denny Erickson and Nancy Josephs, second place went to Mike Raymer and Amy Stephens, and in third place were Steve Moore and Ruth Sarno. Division B winners were Woody Cook and Brenda Lazure, taking second place were Steve Spoeri and Ann Stephens and third place went to Jim Lamon and Rob Stephens.

Our next friendship tournament will be on Saturday, March 13th and the cost will be $10.00. Our annual banquet will be held in April in the Main Ballroom. The cost will be $25.00/person. Roy Musgrove will be in charge of contacting the caterers for this event. Posting of the next Friendship Tournament and banquet will be in the tennis room. You may purchase tickets from any Board member (board members include Stu Rosenthal, President, Patty Sommers V.P., Karen Waterbury Treasurer, Eric Ellman Secretary, and Roy Musgrove.) I have made Maryanne Tecum my liaison to the women's leagues.

In the coming months, I will be writing about the playing of tennis, its rules, and whatever things I can think of to get more people to play and enjoy the sport of tennis.

Lastly, thanks go out to my predecessor, Jacqueline St. Jean.... she did a great job as President and was much appreciated!

THURSDAY NIGHT BINGO By Jack Blevons

March will be the last month of HOA Sponsored Bingo on Thursday nights. Starting in April, the same people who run Thursday night bingo during the summer months will be running it again. Up until now we have been having fantastic crowds at our bingo with over a 100 people coming to play, and because of those large crowds, we have been passing out large amounts of money in the pots to those lucky people who have been winning which makes it even more fun playing. So, keep coming up to the clubhouse to play on Thursday nights.

Again, we want to thank all those people who come early to help us set everything up before we start to play and to those who stay later to help us take everything down and put it all away again. Also want to thank all our helpers that are part of our team that run our bingo. It takes a dedicated team of people to make it fun for everyone who comes to play. I will try to mention everyone's name in the April Tower who is part of our team and also all of those that help set up and take down when we play every Thursday night.

There are five Thursdays in March so I hope to see you all there to enjoy our bingo and hopefully go home with more money than you came with. ~ Jack & Janet

SHUFFLEBOARD LEAGUE By Glenn Tointon

SHUFFLEBOARD TEAMS BEGIN AIMING FOR THE TOP

When there are eighteen teams in a league, one doesn't expect a log jam at the top like the Del Tura Friday league is showing. After nine weeks of competition and six weeks remaining, here are the top teams:

- Glenn and Marykay Tointon at 23-4
- Cam Smith and Martha Anneshansley 21-6
- Bernie and Cyndi Grilli at 20-7
- Bruce Blackmore and Lynn Brenfleck at 20-7
- Dave and Judy Lessard at 19-8
- Ken Trombly and Darlene King at 17-10
- Kyle Boesel and Marcella Carothers at 16-11

It should be noted that we have several beginners and second year players this year with quality records. They include in no particular order:

Dave and Amy Hehl, Dave and Jeanne Csuy, Ken and Janice Dodge, Jeff and Nella Meehan, Kathy Zittani and Jane Sheaffer, John and Denise McGraw, Jean Wiley and Lu Ann Condon, Craig Evans and Debra Morman, Ted and Barb Luke, Larry Camper and Jim Miller, & Lynn Sabel and Barb Jones.

Also to note is that our pro, Jack Norton, and Glenn Tointon paired up in a PRO/ AM tournament held at Lake County and though they didn't place, they did quite well. They went three and three in the thirty-seven team tourney! Also, our pro, Bill Hamilton, should be congratulated for taking first in consolation at a highly rated state tournament.

Reminder to all: Every Tuesday is open shuffleboard for all levels, beginners to experienced. Starting time is 2:30. Please be there by 2:15

SAVE OUR STRAYS

We want to thank Marylou Buss and her great committee. They put on Night at the Races and it was so much fun! Save Our Strays, among other groups, was given a donation by the committee from the event proceeds, which will help with the healthcare costs of our community cats and any veterinarian services needed. We appreciate your support!

*Thank You,

CREATIVE WRITERS By Nancy Davy

We kicked up the pace a bit in January, meeting two weeks apart to help regain some lost time due to taking December off. During those meetings we faced what may have been the two toughest challenges we've done to date - free-writing (illustrated in the February Tower), and the one you'll see below. We again enjoyed some inspiring reflections and commentary as everyone shared their responses with the group. Just a reminder that if you'd like to join us as a new member, please text me (607-769-5766) OR email me to let me know you are interested. My email address is ndavy01@gmail.com. You'll need to provide me with your name, your email address, and your cell phone number. We try to meet twice a month, and I routinely contact everyone with reminders before each meeting.

I'm attaching our challenge, which was to write an eight-line composition using the following constraints:

1. First and last lines use only one syllable words.
2. Second and seventh lines use only two syllable words.
3. Third and sixth lines use only three syllable words.
4. The fourth and fifth lines use only four syllable words.

You can count hyphenated words as one word. You can look up one, two, three and four syllable words and make a pile of each to draw from, or type in specific words for your search engine to define and provide synonyms in varying lengths. I should warn you that this challenge will drive you crazy. It is like doing a tough jigsaw or word puzzle, and it's hard to put it down or to stop with just one. There is a huge benefit in studying lists of words, so we can hone our descriptive skills by selecting words that most closely convey our meaning. In addition, examining words of varying lengths helps us find the right tempo within our work (especially helpful with poetic expression). Hint: Be very careful to go back and re-count the syllables in every single word of every line- it's easy to accidentally slip in a two-syllable word in a one-syllable line! Choose a topic, then draw from your groups of words to build your composition. Try doing more than one if you can.

Example One: by Nancy Davy

- 1 How do I tell you how I feel?
- 2 Blistered; broken inside.
- 3 Existence overlooked,
- 4 Undervalued, disrespected, unimportant.
- 4 Overwhelming condescension,
- 3-Depression unending
- 2 Blistered; broken inside.
- 1 There! That's it! I tried. (Sigh)

Example Two: by Nancy Davy

- 1-What a fun task you gave us this time!
- 2- Kidding!! Writing metered verses?!
- 3- Difficult annoyance overload!!
- 4-Examining grammatical, syntactical compositions,
- 4- Meticulous undertaking notwithstanding - interesting discovery!
- 3- Limitless expressions, including accurate selections
- 2- Really exist! Teaching moment! Finding wordage showing exact meaning!
- 1-This trick will help me as I learn to write. Now I get it.

I hope you'll enjoy the following responses.

The Dog is Out! by Maureen Monroy

"Oh, NO! The dog is out!!"
 Danger looming, frightened poodle running crazy!
 Expecting disaster, collision imminent
 Anticipate difficulty over-taking Unexpected reinforcements!
 Fortuitous recovery!
 Conflicting emotions - Gratitude, annoyance, happiness
 Cuddle escaped puppy.
 Shut the door! Time to rest.

Loss by Colleen Parks Andriano

There are no words for the loss. Although trying, trying becomes hopeless.

Wordlessly wordsmithing becoming ludicrous, laughable,
 Impossibly inadequate, inexpressive,
 ultimately unbearable.
 Disconsolate, melancholy, miserable,
 Sorrowful, dolorous, despairing bereavement.
 Voiceless mourning, never ceasing.
 Sis, I miss you so.

Love by Dianne J. Roderick

Love is...
 Fondness, caring, sharing, passion.
 Empathy, tenderness, devotion.
 Unselfishness, togetherness, encouragement.
 Compassionate, affectionate, respectable.
 Trustworthy, tolerant, forgiving.
 Friendship, patience, support, kindness.
 Love is all that and more!

Home by Cindy Swisher

They say home is where the heart is,
 Except feeling, subtle, cunning,
 directs away.
 Sentiments oftentimes meander faraway.
 Untrustworthy; disembarking substantially disconnected,
 Discovering isolation, separation, devastation.
 Affection's residence located alongside humankind -
 Giving shelter, comfort, respite.
 Home is where those who love us are.

Childbirth by Nancy Ashe

When a child is born
 Every mother panics
 Willingly, shockingly
 Undertaking parturition
 Amazingly, responsibly
 Comforting Bambino
 Within loving
 Arms, heart and soul.

Mary by Maureen Monroy

Most Pure Rose of God
 Loving Mother, Blessed Vessel
 Trinity's Beloved
 Eternally Immaculate
 Humanity's Benefactor
 Poverty's Dignity

Angel's Delight
 Cloak of Love, Hope for All

Golf by Colleen Parks Andriano

Just hit the ball!
 Inner parley, coaching myself daily.
 Bantering, affable,
 wisecracking amateurs,
 Enterprising accomplices participate passionately
 Resolutely, purposefully positioning, calculating
 Eagerly, doggedly, steadily advancing.
 Target drawing nearer, flagstick waving.
 We won't tell the truth: golf sucks!

Dance by Dianne J. Roderick

Dance is on my mind...
 Music playing, mindless swaying.
 Creative, Inventive, physical.
 Spontaneous, choreographed.
 Rhythmically, intimately, self-expressive.
 Descriptive, gracefully elegant.
 Modern, Classic, Ballroom, Latin.
 Swing, spin, whirl, twirl, Dance!

Writing by Cindy Swisher

Words flow free from my mind to my pen.
 Compose, create; sometimes freely,
 Normally challenging; becoming frustrating.
 Captivating motivation:
 COMMUNICATE!
 Dissertation fascination.
 Constantly contriving expression.
 Refrain? Futile. Desist? Absurd.
 Woe is me, my fate is sure, ever fixed,
 set fast.

Green by Nancy Davy

I dreamed that as we slept we all turned green.
 Racial bias vanished!!
 Imagine!! World-reaching empathy!!
 Universal equality! Nonexistent hostility!
 Implausible? Impossible? Ridiculous?
 Radical idea? Silliness? Negative.
 Merely wishful thinking.....
 It would be nice if we could all be friends.
